Press Release

DRR has again won more national youth Championships than the big 4.

Great news,

DRR claimed a total of 7 National Championships in the 2008 WORCS season! The Hetrick Racing/DRR National team claimed all 3 70cc championships. Buddy Williams became WORCS series and DRR's winningest National Rider of all time claiming 2 more National titles in 2008, making it an astonishing 5 career National Championships, solely aboard DRR machines. Buddy won the the 70cc mod class, the 70cc open, and finished 3rd overall in the 90cc class on board a 70cc ATV. Hetrick/DRR rider Kohl Feuerhahn won the 70cc stock class. Austin Bennett claimed both 90cc titles, including the mod, and the Sport class. Cole Fite piloted the DRR 250 to a 12-15 stock class title, and Brenden Mulcahy won the 90cc open championship. DRR's biggest competitor, leaving only 2 titles up for grabs.

DRR has over 400 dealers nationwide and was founded in 2000. DRR provides a quality, affordable and safe ATVs to help young riders get off to a good safe start. DRR is the official quad for SPEED Channels Rapid Turnover. DRR has a national trackside support and offers the largest youth contingency out of all manufactures. DRR is one of a few ATV manufactures who have submitted their action plans to CPSC. For more information contact DRR @ 330-220-3102.
